Ex-Rep. G. A. Dondoro Coming Here July 3

Former Congressman George A. Dondoro, Royal Oak, Mich., lawyer who has visited Gettysburg many times over the last four decades, will return on July 3 to visit the battlefield on the anniversary of the fighting here in '63.

In a letter to Dr. J. Walter Coleman, Gettysburg National Park superintendent, Mr. Dondoro said he plans to visit the sites Michigan troops occupied on the battlefield and he has letters from Mrs. Pickett which he wishes to show to members of the park staff here.

He expects to arrive at the Hotel Gettysburg about noon on July 3.

TO DECIDE SOON ON FLORIDA SITE OF NEW COLLEGE

Florida Presbyterian College will be built in the center of that state and the first task of its first president, Dr. William H. Kadel, Gettysburg native and alumnus of Gettysburg College, will be to work with a committee to select a site for the $6 million project. He hopes the site will be selected by January 1.

The Rev. Dr. Kadel, who is the youngest son of Mrs. J. H. Kadel, W. Middle St., will begin his duties as president of the new college September 1. He will continue until then as pastor of the First Presbyterian Church of Orlando, Fla.

Dr. Kadel, who is 44, has been pastor of the Orlando Church since 1953. He made formal announcement of his plans to resign at a congregational meeting last Sunday. Before going to Orlando, he served eight years as pastor of Palma Ceia Presbyterian Church of Tampa.

To Be Ready By '61

Dr. Kadel said this week that trustees of the new college hope to open the new school by 1961. The college is under the auspices of the Southern Presbyterian Church. An enrollment of about 600 is expected. It will be co-educational. He was graduated from Gettysburg College in 1935, attended Western Theological Seminary at Pittsburgh and received a Doctor of Theology degree from Union Seminary at Richmond, Va. He is a former chairman of the general council of the Synod of Florida, a board member of the Presbyterian Foundation and has been moderator of the Florida Synod.

The Florida Synod of the United Presbyterian Church in the U.S.A. also has announced plans for the establishment of a college in Florida. It will be located at Winter Haven. The United Presbyterian and the Southern Presbyterian are separate organizations and have no affiliation.

Police Apprehend 2 Run Away Youths

Two youths, ages 14 and 15, from the Harborside Training School in Erie, were apprehended by borough police this morning while walking on Baltimore St. After questioning at police headquarters the boys were jailed awaiting word from probation officers in their respective home towns, Erie and Erwin, Pa.

The boys told police they "walked out" of the school June 11. One youth said he was held for burglary, the other for larceny of a truck.

FILES ESTATE BOND

Pauline S. Hepler filed an administration bond in the office of the register and recorder today in the $600 estate of Ronald R. Hepler, late of Gettysburg.

After two hours of tests, the airman elected to ride down with the six-engine RB47 reconnaissance bomber. They brought the plane home to Forbes Air Force Base without further mishap.

"The two hours seemed like seven hours because you know at the end you had to come down," said Maj. Lewis, Chase, 36, commander of the bomber, from Gallitzin, Pa.

Practiced Landings

With an engine gone and a ripped wing, the crew practiced landings at 15,000 feet—slowing down and lowering flaps and landing gear—before they decided the ship could be coaxed to the ground.

The crew experienced a sudden jolt about 8 p.m. while on a routine training flight and Chase said he saw one of the plane's engines standing on end. A few seconds later it dropped off, ripping the underside of the right wing. The engine fell harmlessly in the back yard of a farmhouse about 50 miles south of here.

"We could not see the bottom of the wing and we did not know whether the wing would stay on," said Chase.

Others aboard were Lt. Frank L. Hicks, Olympia, Wash., pilot; Capt. Thomas H. Hanley, Easton, Pa., navigator; 1st Lt. Heromua Goya, Honolulu; 1st Lt. Thomas J. Giesalfi, Baldwin, Long Island, N. Y.; and 2nd Lt. Roscoe H. Fobair, Covina, Calif.

Chase said the plane became easier to control as the fuel load lightened. He and the other crew members definitely decided about 10 p.m. to land, and brought the ship in at 11:27 p.m.

"Most pilots would have bailed out under similar circumstances," said Col. James K. Johnson, commander of the 55th Strategic Reconnaissance Wing. "They would have hit the panic button."

Mr. and Mrs. Richards brought the suit, filed for them in the prothonotary's office today by Atty. Edward B. Buleit, as a result of an auto accident December 11, 1956.

The complaint lists two counts, one for $23,329.15 brought by Mrs. Richards, the other count being the $5,000 Richards says he should have for "loss of consortium." He does not list the length of times he was deprived of his wife's "companionship, services and society" as the result of the accident. Mrs. Richards in her complaint says she lost about six months work.

Fighting Rages For Hours In Port Of Tripoli; 6 Dead

BEIRUT (AP) — Hard fighting raged for more than four hours today in the port of Tripoli. At least 6 persons were killed and 20 injured.

Omar Karomi, a rebel leader, told The Associated Press by telephone that the fighting broke out at noon and quickly spread to the central section of the city. Karomi is a brother of Tripoli's rebel leader Raschid Karomi.

"The fighting reached a climax about 3 p.m.," Karomi said. Then it slackened off, but shooting was still going on at 4 p.m.

Karomi denied Cairo radio reports that strong rebel reinforcements are marching on Tripoli.

Tripoli is the city where the Lebanese rebellion started 48 days ago.

Fighting went on in the city all Wednesday night. An army communiqué said it started when rebels opened fire on army positions and civilians. The rebels said the government forces employed armored cars to blast rebel roadblocks in the city.

Night skirmishes also were reported from the Bekaa Valley in central Lebanon.

Burglars Break Open Four Safes In Furniture Factory Offices; Steal $64 In Cash

The Gettysburg Furniture Company offices on York St. were burglarized overnight by thieves who broke open four of the five safes in the offices and escaped with about $64 in cash.

Borough and state police, who are investigating, placed the burglary between 6 p.m. Wednesday and 7 o'clock this morning. They said two or more burglars apparently participated and must have spent considerable time in the office building.

The thugs left 25 pennies and four dimes in a second floor walk-in vault.

Police are not yet able to say how entrance to the office building was gained.

Discovered By Janitor

The first signs of intrusion were discovered by the janitor, Allen Trostle, a little after 7 a.m. when he saw debris on the floor were the thieves tried to get into the vault by going through a multiple layer brick wall. Police say probably the burglars decided the front door of the vault, in the second floor offices, looked too "tough" to break so they tried to force the back wall.

Police added when thieves ran into the second layer of brick they gave up and turned again to the locked vault door.

A small 200-pound safe inside the vault is missing. The small light-gray safe belonged to a company official and contained a camera and some papers. A locked wooden box containing petty cash was broken open and $60 removed, leaving the 25 pennies and four dimes on the floor. Various other locked compartments in the vault were also broken into but nothing was reported missing by office personnel.

Of five safes in the office building, four were broken open. The other safe on the second floor was unopened but apparently was not disturbed. It contained records only.

NAVY VANGUARD FIRING FAILS AT CANAVERAL

CAPE CANAVERAL, Fla. (AP) — Another "basketball" satellite was boosted into space by a Vanguard rocket today. Then, like its two predecessors, the 20-inch, 21½-pound sphere plunged back to earth.

Failure of the Vanguard's second stage to ignite was blamed by the Naval Research Laboratory.

The 72-foot Navy rocket now has failed in five of its six tries. Its only success was chalked up March 17, when it launched the 3½-pound "grapefruit" satellite, tiniest of the man-made moons circling the earth.

News From GE

Immediately in the wake of this latest failure came news from General Electric Co. that it is developing a new rocket engine capable of launching a satellite weighing as much as 20,000 pounds—almost seven times bigger than the Soviet Sputnik III.

This engine, the company said, will generate from 500,000 to a million pounds of thrust. This compares with 45,000 pounds for the Vanguard.

Components of the engine now are being tested by the GE rocket engine section at Malta, N.Y. It will be powered by liquid oxygen and kerosene, the same fuels used in the first stage of the Vanguard.

First Stage Okay

The latest Vanguard blasted off at 12:01 a.m. after delays of 2½ hours in the countdown. It was the third effort to get this particular rocket off its launching pad.

Its first stage functioned nicely, carrying the entire assembly to an altitude of 35 miles before burning out at the proper moment. By then, it was out of sight in the Florida sky.

Half an hour later, the Navy announced that the second stage, which houses the whole guidance "brain" of the rocket, did not ignite and so it did not achieve the necessary 300-mile altitude and the 18,000-mile-an-hour velocity required to put its satellite into orbit.

TEACHER RAPS SOFT SCHOOLS

BOWLING GREEN, Ohio (AP) — The younger generation won't like this, but here's a man who says they've got it too easy in school. He's convinced they need more work to keep their minds from growing rusty.

Dr. Banesh Hoffmann of Queens College in New York says American students have developed lazy mental habits. He says there are but two cures: Better and tougher teachers, and a different approach to education by American parents.

Dr. Hoffmann, a theoretical physicist, is waging his own one-man campaign against soft education. He hopes to spread some of his theories among the 1,000 other educators gathered here for the 13th annual convention on teacher education and professional standards.

"I demand a lot of my students," he said in an interview today. "I'm tough with them. And when I show them I mean business, I get a lot more out of them. What teachers have to do is first get the student's interest, and then pull him along as fast as possible."

Bomarc Roars Off After Air Target

CAPE CANAVERAL, Fla. (AP) — A swift Boeing Bomarc ground-to-air missile roared off today to intercept an airborne target in a test some 200 miles off the Atlantic.

Bomarc—the Air Force's most highly developed defense missile—streaked straight up into the hazy sky and then arched gently toward the southeast.

Its target probably was a cruising B17 drone bomber. The Bomarc usually guides in on the target but veers off at the last split second during test shoots.

More than 40 Bomarc have fired.

STRIKE ENDS AT MISSILE PLANT

DETROIT (AP) — Chrysler's guided missile plant prepared to get back to normal production today as a three-day wildcat strike of a United Auto Workers rebel group ended.

Although protesting, members of the Missile Plant Local 1245 voted Wednesday night to accept an order from the UAW international to return to work or face disciplinary action.

UAW President Walter Reuther, putting local leaders on the carpet, had threatened to place the local under an administrator. This could have meant removal of its officers.

Since Monday, the missiles plant had been picketed in violation of the UAW no-strike policy during its present no-contract period in the auto industry. The union lacks contracts with Chrysler, General Motors and Ford.

Assembly of the Redstone missile and Jupiter rocket was crippled even though Local 1245 represents only 450 of the plant's 8,600 workers.

Strikers charged that Chrysler discriminated against the union minority group in the plant on job assignments and overtime work. Chrysler denied this.

URGE SPEED ON SCHOOL ORDER

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Supreme Court today was asked to hold a special session to rule on a lower court order delaying school integration in Little Rock, Ark., for 2½ years.

Two attorneys petitioned the high tribunal to hear arguments immediately and overturn the order by U.S. Dist. Judge Harry J. Lemley.

Their petition contends Judge Lemley's ruling is directly in conflict with the Supreme Court's decision in the school integration cases.

Wiley Branton of Pine Bluff, Ark., representing Negro pupils in Little Rock; and Waite Madison of New York, of the National Assn. for the Advancement of Colored People, filed the petition.

The petition noted that the U.S. Circuit Court in St. Louis had already been asked to stay Judge Lemley's ruling, but no action has been taken.

Robert E. Burton, 36, of Newtown Square, told the magistrate he was driving a station wagon between Plymouth Meeting and Valley Forge when another car began to jockey back and forth.

Then, Burton said, he heard a noise like a shot, stopped and found a bullet hole in the rear of his car.

Lazarus was arrested after Burton furnished state police with the other car's license number.

police force proposal caused Western diplomats at U.N. headquarters to predict an emergency session of the General Assembly would be called.

The Assembly could act without a veto to send in international troops. But whether it could act in time to do Chamoun's government any good was another matter.

Chamoun said that if the U.N. fails to help him, he may call on the United States and Britain to provide direct aid under the U.N. Charter provision for collective defense.

The Soviet Union has warned against either a U.N. emergency force for Lebanon or direct U.S.-British intervention.

Littlestown

NEW FACTORY BUILDING IS BEING ERECTED

The Littlestown Town Council at its June meeting Tuesday evening formally issued a building permit for a new one-story concrete block and steel plant being erected on Monarch St. Extended, by the Littlestown Pattern Works.

The new building, which may be ready for use by October 1 when the present quarters at the rear of 220 and 222 S. Queen St. will be abandoned, measures 140 by 60 feet and will triple the size of the present plant. The new building is located between the present pattern factory and the Lee Metals plant.

The Littlestown Pattern Works, which has been operating in Littlestown for the last 10 years, manufactures aluminum patterns and castings. More than a dozen other building permits were issued but the others chiefly involved repairs or improvements rather than new construction.

Make Street Survey
President Donald L. Bedford presided at the meeting with all members of council, Burgess Elmer G. Miller, Treasurer John H. Flickinger and Secretary Roger J. Keefe in attendance. The meeting followed an inspection of town streets and alleys and convened in Keefe's office at 8:10 p.m.

There was some criticism from councilmen for the "unauthorized" stoning of Talbot St. and an alley adjacent to the playground but council decided that since the stones had been placed, bituminous material should be added to hold them in place. Council also discussed the reconditioning of the first alley west of S. Queen St. between Cemetery St. and Boyer St., Industrial alley and the alley to the rear of St. Paul's Lutheran church. It was agreed that Maitland Brothers be consulted for furnishing equipment and for conditioning those sections.

Other areas were discussed for patching or reconditioning, including E. Myrtle St. at the gasoline excavation and the W. King St. and Rita Marie Ave. intersection.

Name "Marian" Street
Plans were made for widening and improvement of M St. and council decided that with the improvements will come a name change to Marian St., instead of M St.

Secretary Keefe told council that since his last meeting he had met with Wm. V. Sneringer relative to the widening of M St. and the alley adjacent to the St. Aloysius Church property and said it was understood that the church would give

"FORTIFYING FEELINGS"

We all have tender feelings . . . that are easily hurt . . . and so we should build up a fort . . . to which we can retreat . . . in other words, try not to wear . . . your heart upon your sleeve . . . or more than often you will be . . . the one destined to grieve . . . as sentimental as I am . . . I form a mental shell . . . wherein I find the power . . . to attract or to repel . . . I go there when I'm ridiculed . . . by folks who are unfair . . . and somehow I can banish all . . . the discomforts of care . . . of course sometimes it's hard to do . . . mankind hits very low . . . there are some things that penetrate . . . most any heart with woe . . . but for the most part we can shed . . . the torrents of life's rain . . . a fort around our feelings . . . will help us stand the strain.

the borough additional footage on the alley and M St. Mr. Keefe also reported some objection had arisen to the present name of the street and the name "Marian" had been suggested.

The solicitor was authorized to prepare a deed for transferring the property along M St. and the alley from the church to the borough and an ordinance re-ordering the street under its new name. The deed is to be given the town for $500, the amount agreed upon for replacing necessary portions of the curb and sidewalk.

Discuss "Old Fannie"

Council approved a request for an additional street light at the intersection of Pennsylvania Ave. and W. Myrtle St. The request came from Samuel J. Snyder. There was a discussion about street lights being turned on too late in the evenings and it was explained that a new device for turning on the lights was installed recently that was believed to have corrected the difficulty. The matter will be brought to the attention of the Metropolitan Edison Company.

Councilmen discussed at length what should be done with "Old Fannie," the American LaFrance fire truck for which there will not be any space in the engine house when the new pumper arrives. It was decided to follow a suggestion that the old engine be offered to the Two Taverns company or some other nearby fire company free of cost with the provision that it be kept in shape for use in fighting fires and that when called upon could be used for fires in the Littlestown area.

The old pumper had been advertised for sale but no formal offers were received. Councilman Selby was directed to get in touch

Today's Talk

OUR FOLLOWERS
I believe all of us have mysterious unseen followers ever about us — following us always, no matter where we may go. We feel their presence in sorrow, when in trouble and when most in need. They say nothing but they shadow our lives and we welcome their presence, for they whisper what to do. They are, perhaps, the angels of our better selves.

Most of our lifetime is planned and charted by these silent, unseen strangers that inhabit our spiritual world. Oh, how many from taking the wrong step or making the wrong decision. We shall never know what we owe to that secret guard.

How many times these followers of ours have kept us from entering the wrong places, and have led us to the right ones. Time and again it has been difficult for me to realize that these followers of mine have not been real and actual, but their shadowy selves alone have been my conductors.

More miracles than we have any idea of have been performed without our notice, but as we grow in spirit and understanding these miracles take form and substance. Often they are revealed before our very eyes!

In the animal world, and in all nature as well, there are secret signs that may become the alpha-bet of our happier days. Nature is so revealing. We are a part of it, being of the same earthy substance of nature.

How much of this nature is performed and made beautiful. How the memory of it all touches our senses and gives us guidance. These followers of ours are our teachers. They keep the flame of beauty and wonder forever burning brighter.

Tomorrow Mr. Adams will talk on the subject: "On Eating Alone"

OVERWORKED
"I cannot get away," he said.

"I cannot quit the city's grime
To rest where velvet green is spread,
I simply cannot spare the time."

"I'd like to take an ocean trip.
Or seek some summer beach to play,
I'd like to give dull care the slip,
But still I cannot get away."

"Why not?" they asked. "The many do."
Why not go forth in search of rest?
Your neighbor plays, and why not you?
Get out and mingle with the rest."

"I can't," said he. "I've got to work.
It's very different with me.
Though others for a time may shirk,
Upon the job I've got to be."

One day the doctor said: "Too late,"
As by the toiler's bed he stood.
"There is no cure for such a state.
He should have rested when he could."

SPRING LAKE, N.J. (AP) — Asst. U.S. Atty. Wilson White says he is opposed to having the federal government step into purely local civil rights cases.

"It cannot be done," he told the Pennsylvania Bar Assn. "To date none of these cases has presented facts falling within the area of a federal criminal law."

OLD PROS SEE EARLY EXIT OF SHERMAN ADAMS

By JACK BELL

WASHINGTON (AP)—Whatever the surface signs may say, a substantial segment of the old pros of the Republican party have convinced themselves that Sherman Adams is not long for the White House.

This runs contrary to the clear signs President Eisenhower has given that he needs his top assistant and intends to keep him at his right hand.

However, among many of those planning the forthcoming congressional election campaign, the belief persists that steps are being taken to smooth the eventual exit of Adams.

These men are busy revising the campaign strategy because of disclosures that Adams accepted costly favors from Bernard Goldfine of Boston, a textile mill and real estate operator.

Revive Old Charges
One of these strategists, who has maintained friendly relations with Adams, said a concerted effort now is under way to diffuse the attacks on the presidential assistant by reviving influence charges made against Democrats. This would tend to mute any corruption issue in the congressional campaign.

Regulatory agency officials have denied that Goldfine benefited from telephone calls directed to them by Adams.

The administration also has made some strenuous efforts to get Republicans to defend Adams. But it hasn't been able to muster much support among Congress members seeks re-election.

Some Republican strategists hope the President's aide will regard himself as sufficiently vindicated to take himself out of the campaign picture.

They are convinced that even if there remains no valid challenge to his integrity, the Goldfine-paid hotel bills, the gift vicuna coat and the loaned $2,400 Oriental rug will be much hotter campaign issues if Adams remains in the White House than if he leaves.

Violence flared last August when the first Negro family, that of Mr. and Mrs. William Myers, moved into the community. Windows in their home were broken, demonstrations were held and police arrested several persons on disorderly conduct charges.

Hungarian Reds Oust Lutheran Bishop

BUDPEST (AP) — Bishop Lajos Ordass, long at odds with Hungary's Communist regime, has been ousted as head of the nation's southern Lutheran bishopric.

The council of his bishopric asked him Wednesday to hand over his office after learning that the government refused to accept the two-year-old resignation of Bishop Laszlo Bessery Bishop Dezserly had replaced Bishop Ordass while the latter was imprisoned by the Communists. Bishop Dezserly told the council he does not want the job.

Bishop Ordass' ouster leaves the Red government in full control of the religious front unless resistance develops among Lutherans who support him.

Cougars Seek More Titles After Win

WASHINGTON, Mass. (AP) —

Houston Cougars, holding their third straight team title after a record-shattering spree, today sent five players in quest of the individual National Collegiate golf championship.

Co-medalist Phil Rodgers, Jim Hiskey, Jack Cupit, Frank Wharton and Bob Pratt ventured into the first round of match competition after establishing a low mark of 570 aggregate strokes, two better than the previous mark by Southern Methodist in 1954.

Houston, which lost only to Baylor in 11 dual matches, now has won seven consecutive tournaments.

Oklahoma State placed second 12 strokes behind, aided by Ab Justice who fired a 139 for co-medal with Rodgers.

CHICO'S TRIPLE DEFEATS CUBS

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — The Philadelphia Phillies can thank Chico Fernandez for ending their scoring frustrations and giving them a 5-4 extra inning victory over the pesky Chicago Cubs.

Fernandez, who has the club's lowest batting average, turned slugging last night, belting two clutch triples.

The first ended 22 scoreless innings for the Phils. The second broke a 4-4 tie in the 10th inning with two out.

Don Elston, the Cubs' third hurler, had stopped the Phils cold in the seventh and ninth innings with the potential winning run on base. With two out in the 10th, and Harry Anderson at first, Fernandez lined an Elston offering to left and that won the game.

In the third, Fernandez tripled to deep right center scoring Anderson who had doubled. The run was the first for the Phils since the ninth inning of a Sunday game with San Francisco.

Dick Farrell, who relieved starter Ray Semproch in the seventh, was the winning pitcher.

GIANTS WALLOP BRAVES; CARDS BEAT PIRATES

By ED WILKS

"This National League is so tough," insists Manager Bill Rigney of San Francisco, "my guys could win it." Thus far, the race and his Giants have made that boast a toast.

The Giants haven't won two in a row in a month. They haven't had an extra-base hit or a run batted in since June 1. Yet they've lost only 1 1/2 games to the defending Milwaukee Braves.

They looked like anything but a slumping club Wednesday night, walloping the first-place Braves 10-2 on an unbeatable combination of breaks, hits and pitching. That left the third-place Giants 692 percentage points behind St. Louis. Both challengers are only 2 1/2 games back of Milwaukee. The Cardinals won their fifth straight, 3-1 at Pittsburgh.

Phils Miss Cellar

Philadelphia avoided a dip to the cellar with a 5-4 decision over the Chicago Cubs in 10 innings. Los Angeles and Cincinnati were tied by rain.

The Braves failed to make a big thing of four San Francisco errors. They helped the Giants with two boots in a five-run sixth that broke a scoreless duel. Al Worthington gained a 6-3 record, but after blanking the Braves on four hits for seven innings needed relief help.

Cards Win 6th

The Cardinals won their sixth in a row over the Pirates with a three-run sixth that backed up a RBI single by Curt Flood wrapped it up against rookie George Witt (1-1).

Chico Fernandez rapped a pair of RBI triples for the Phillies, the second breaking things up in the 10th off Don Elston (6-5).

Dick Farrell won his fourth in relief of Ray Sempach, who left in the seventh as the Phils blew a 4-1 lead on Sammy Taylor's double, a walk, Bobby Thomson's single, an infield out and an error.

M'KAY VICTOR AT WIMBLEDON

WIMBLEDON, England (AP)—Barry MacKay, America's main hope in the men's singles of the Wimbledon tennis championships, today advanced to the third round by defeating E. R. Bullmer, a minor English player, 6-1, 9-7, 6-2.

The tall, Davis Cup star from Dayton, Ohio, completed his victory on an outside court as gusty winds swept the field and rain threatened.

Shortly after the match was over a 15-minute downpour sent players, officials and spectators scurrying for cover.

Tape For Blister

Playing with tape on his blistered right hand—the racket hand—MacKay ran through the first set without even taking off his sweater.

Mike Green of Miami Beach, Fla., joined MacKay in the third round. He defeated Bert Kearney of Australia 7-5, 6-1, 6-4.

Other winners included Ramonathan Krishnan, Indian Davis Cupper, Britain's Bobby Wilson, and Jean-Claude Molinari of France.

Other Matches

Krishnan ousted Ivor Warwick of Britain, 6-1, 14-12, 6-0. Wilson eliminated V. V. Reid of Australia, 7-5, 6-0, 7-5. Molinari beat Roger Becker, British Davis Cupper, with surprising ease, 6-3, 6-3, 6-4.

Bill Quillian of Seattle was the first American loser of the day when he bowed in a second round match to M. P. Hann of Britain, 11-9, 1-6, 6-3, 6-4.

Seventh-seeded Sven Davidson of Sweden made hard work of his second round match, played in a chilly wind. Davidson finally defeated Mexico's Pancho Contreras, 6-2, 10-8, 8-6.

A pair of runs in the last of the fifth inning gave the Moose a 3-2 victory over the W-L Warehouse Wednesday evening in the local softball league and created a triple tie for second place between the winners, losers, and the VFW.

In the opening inning the W-L outfit scored a run. Bean led off with a double and was cut down going to third on Slaybaugh's grounder. Slaybaugh moved to third on a wild pitch and tallied on Stoner's sacrifice fly.

After wasting a pair of hits in their half, the Moose tied the score in the second. Cole was hit by a pitched ball but was forced by Gilbert. Epler grounded to Waddell who hit Gilbert attempting to force him a second and the base-runner continued all the way home.

An error, single by Bud Knox and double by Ken Fair gave the Moose their runs in the fifth. A pinch-hit homerun by Baker gave W-L its final run in the seventh.

Tonight the News Agency and Table Rock meet at 7 o'clock with the Moose and Hess Antiques clashing in the second game.

Emmitsburg Little League

Manager Dick Harner's Giants clinched the first-half title race in the Emmitsburg Little League Wednesday evening as they watched the Yankees whip the Red Sox 5-4 thus eliminating the latter club from the pennant race.

The Yankees muffled the bats of the Red Sox behind Charlie Bowers' three hit pitching and came up with key fielding plays in the clutch. Shortstop Jackie Dillon twice saved runs by taking overthrows back of third base with men on third and Billy Weidner moved the Yanks into a second place tie with the Red Sox with a fine running catch in left field that ended the game with two Sox runners on base. Bowers picked up his third straight victory against no losses.

Gettysburg Little League

The Rotary Tigers, under Manager George Bender, broke another record Wednesday evening by winning their 11th consecutive game as they topped the Moose 9-2 on the little league diamond. The previous record was ten straight wins set by the Glenn L. Bream team several years ago.

The present Tigers have come a long way since their rebuilding sessions under former manager Jack Bream when in 1953 they won only one game out of the 18 and in 1954 captured two victories. Bender, assisted by Noel Flynn, has not changed any strategy set up by Bream.

Mike Flynn, Rotary third baseman, led his teammates to victory at the plate by pounding out three hits including two doubles, a pair of RBI's and scored one run.

Johnny Longenecker, who didn't show his usual speed, weakened at various times throughout the game, but managed to strike out 12 batters and record his sixth win in as many decisions.

The Tigers tallied three times in the first frame on a double by Mike Flynn and Tom Collins single. Another run was added in the second on Flynn's second two banger and a safety to left by Bill James. The winners climaxed their scoring with three scores in the third and two more in the sixth.

Kenny Hartman started behind the plate and kept several base runners from advancing. Ron Plank made a pair of fine catches in deep right field in the first and third frames to hold the Rotary from scoring any further runs.

Gary Hartman and Rick Fissel were the old stand-bys as they produced a couple of hits that figured in the Moose two scores.

Chris Richardson started on the mound for the home team but yielded to Rick Fissel in the fourth. Fissel held the Tigers without a score until the sixth when the Rotary tallied on three errors.

HEART OPENED WHILE CHILD IS UNDER HYPNOSIS

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—A teenager with her heart opened was awakened on the operating table to demonstrate the value of hypnosis in surgery, a Beverly Hills doctor reported Wednesday.

While her heart was out of commission and her blood was being pumped by a machine, the 14-year-old girl opened her eyes and responded repeatedly to the doctor's instructions, he said.

She then was put to sleep again by suggestion and came through the operation in good shape. Twenty days later she left the hospital.

Consciousness Good

An account of the operation was given in a paper before the American Medical Assn. by Dr. Milton Marmar, who handled the anesthesia and did the hypnotizing.

A return to consciousness while under open heart surgery is a good idea because it allows the doctors to check on whether patient's brain is being damaged while the machine is taking over the job of the heart.

With hypnosis, a smaller amount of anesthetic was needed to put the patient to sleep and it enabled the doctor to restore her to slumber after once awakening her.

SETTLEMENT IN 27-DAY STRIKE AGAINST PAPERS

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—A settlement has been reached in the 27-day Teamsters strike against the Bulletin and the Inquirer. The agreement is subject to ratification at a Teamsters meeting today.

Federal Mediator Paul Yager announced Wednesday night that representatives of Teamsters Local 626 and the Publishers Assn. of Philadelphia had reached an agreement.

Terms were not disclosed pending the ratification vote.

Courier-Post Not Included

The strike has halted home and newsstand delivery of the two Philadelphia papers — among the largest in the nation — and of the nearby Camden (N. J.) Courier-Post, since Memorial Day weekend.

A spokesman for the Camden paper said there had been no settlement with the Courier-Post. "The Courier-Post will continue to be published and sold at the newspaper plant from 10 a.m. to 9:30 p.m. until further notice," he added.

To Meet Later

Yager said he will meet later in the week with representatives of the Teamsters and the Camden paper.

All three newspapers have continued publishing. The Bulletin and the Courier-Post, afternoon papers, have carried advertising.

The federal mediator said he is to meet again today with representatives of the morning Inquirer and the American Newspaper Guild. The Inquirer Guild unit went on strike June 1 for more pay, shorter hours and fringe benefits. The Bulletin and the Courier-Post do not have guild units.

Teamsters had asked for a $10-a-week increase. The Philadelphia publishers offered $8.50. Drivers

UPI Reporter Beaten, Robbed By 2 Hikers

WILLIAMSPORT, Pa. (AP)—A Harrisburg newsman was beaten and robbed of his automobile and $23 in cash by two hitchhikers he picked up in Lycoming County Tuesday.

Burton W. Siglin, a Harrisburg correspondent for United Press International, was struck on the head but required no medical attention after the two unidentified men set upon him on a rural road near Warrensville.

State police Cpl. John A. Ricketts said Siglin told him he picked up the hitchhikers about 20 minutes before the incident occurred. One of them asked the newsman to stop the car. As he did the other stunned him with a blow on the head. In the ensuing scuffle Siglin's trousers were torn and his wallet ripped from his pocket.

The hitchhikers hurriedly drove off with Siglin's car when the reporter was pushed out of the vehicle, said Ricketts. The 1958 model vehicle was still reported missing.

Physician Orders Lunt To Hospital

NEW YORK (AP)—Actor Alfred Lunt, reported to have had a high fever for the past few days, was sent to a hospital Wednesday night by his physician.

Lunt played Wednesday's matinee of the Broadway play "The Visit," in which he is costarred with his wife Lynn Fontanne.

About an hour before Wednesday night's performance Lunt, 65, was sent to New York Hospital. His part was taken by understudy John Wise.

were getting $94.50 under a contract which expired May 29.

Chief point of contention was a modified picket line clause which the union wanted in the new contract. The publishers said the clause could exempt drivers from reporting for work, regardless of contractual obligations, if a picket line were set up at either Philadelphia newspaper.

DALLAS SCHOOLS WILL CONTINUE TO SEGREGATE

DALLAS (AP) — The Dallas school board, beset on two sides and bogged down in a legal morass, said Wednesday night its schools will remain segregated in the coming school year.

It pointed toward an apparent conflict between the U. S. Supreme Court's ruling against school segregation and Texas integration laws.

"The board is convinced that it would be a poor service to Dallas and to the large area of the Southwest which may follow the Dallas lead to undertake the activation of the Supreme Court decree until federal and state courts reach some legally acceptable unanimity of opinion," said the board's statement.

NACCP Disappointed
Edwin C. The Rev. R. E. Davis, who said he was president of a local White Citizens Council, said if the board carries out integration it would be "aiding and abetting the Supreme Court in destroying every vestige of constitutional law and order—shaking the very pillars of the Republic."

The board also authorized its attorney to start action in state courts to solve the legal problems. The U. S. 5th Circuit Court of Appeals July 23, 1957, ordered the

8 Get Overdose Of Deadly Radiation

OAK RIDGE, Tenn. (AP) — Eight atomic plant workers, exposed accidentally last week to an overdose of deadly radiation, show no outward ill effects.

"Specialists who are keeping the men under observation say that their biggest problem is making the men see the need to stay in the hospital," an Atomic Energy Commission spokesman said Wednesday. He added that the men are walking about, but confined to their rooms.

Five of the eight suffered bone marrow damage in the accident. Bone marrow is the body's blood-building tissue.

The men were exposed at an atomic plant June 16 in a radiation accident described as the worst in AEC history.

Doctors expect to keep the eight men under observation for at least two weeks more.

Identical Twins Break Left Arms

CHARLOTTE, N. C. (AP) — Neighbors of identical twins Richard and Robert Galloway, 7, at last had a means of telling them apart when Robert turned up two weeks ago with a broken left arm in a sling. Then Richard had his turn. Results: identical plaster casts, identical left slings — identical twins.

Makarios Ignores Canterbury Blast

ATHENS (AP) — Archbishop Makarios, leader of the Greek Cypriots seeking an end to British rule of their island, turned the other cheek today to the head of the Church of England. Dr. Geoffrey Fisher, the archbishop of Canterbury, said in London Wednesday night that everyone knows Makarios is a bad character. "I regard with abhorrence his general political behavior and his association with terrorism" in the Cypriot campaign for union with Greece, Dr. Fisher said.

Makarios said, "I do not wish to hurt the archbishop in any way and for this reason I shall refrain from making any comment."

ARMED CZECH GUARDS SEIZE YANK FISHING

VIENNA, Austria (AP) — Sgt. James E. Cole said today Communist Czechoslovak guards with a submachine gun seized him on the Austrian side of a border stream two weeks ago.

Cole, dressed in a light blue suit, appeared pale and nervous at a news conference in the U.S. embassy. He gave this account: "I was fishing in the Thaya river I never left the Austrian bank. All of a sudden I saw Czech soldier across the river coming out of a clump of trees.

"First thing I heard was the German words 'haende hoch' (hands up). He pointed his rifle at me. He continued in German 'tschedschische erde' (Czech ground). I replied 'no. oesterreichische erde' (Austrian ground). 'I told him 'geh weg' (go away) and he worked the bolt of his rifle. I thought it was time I got out of there.

"I turned around and saw, directly behind me, another Czech soldier, pointing a submachine gun at me. 'hands up' he said, also in German. Then they said 'mgehen' (go) and we marched to the other side of the river. Then they took me to prison."

Cole refused to continue from there under U.S. embassy restrictions.

He said only: "I was not mistreated," that he was asked "quite a number of questions" and accused of having violated the Czechoslovak frontier. But he declined to say whether he was accused of espionage.

One of the Western reporters asked him to comment on a statement by his Austrian-born wife's cousin, who was fishing with him. The Austrian had said he saw Cole wading in the water.

Basket Of Trout
"I can't answer this," Cole replied.

Another reporter said that as far as he knew there are no trout in the Thaya, a stream seldom visited by Austrian fishermen.

"I got news for you," Cole replied. "I caught a whole basket full of them."

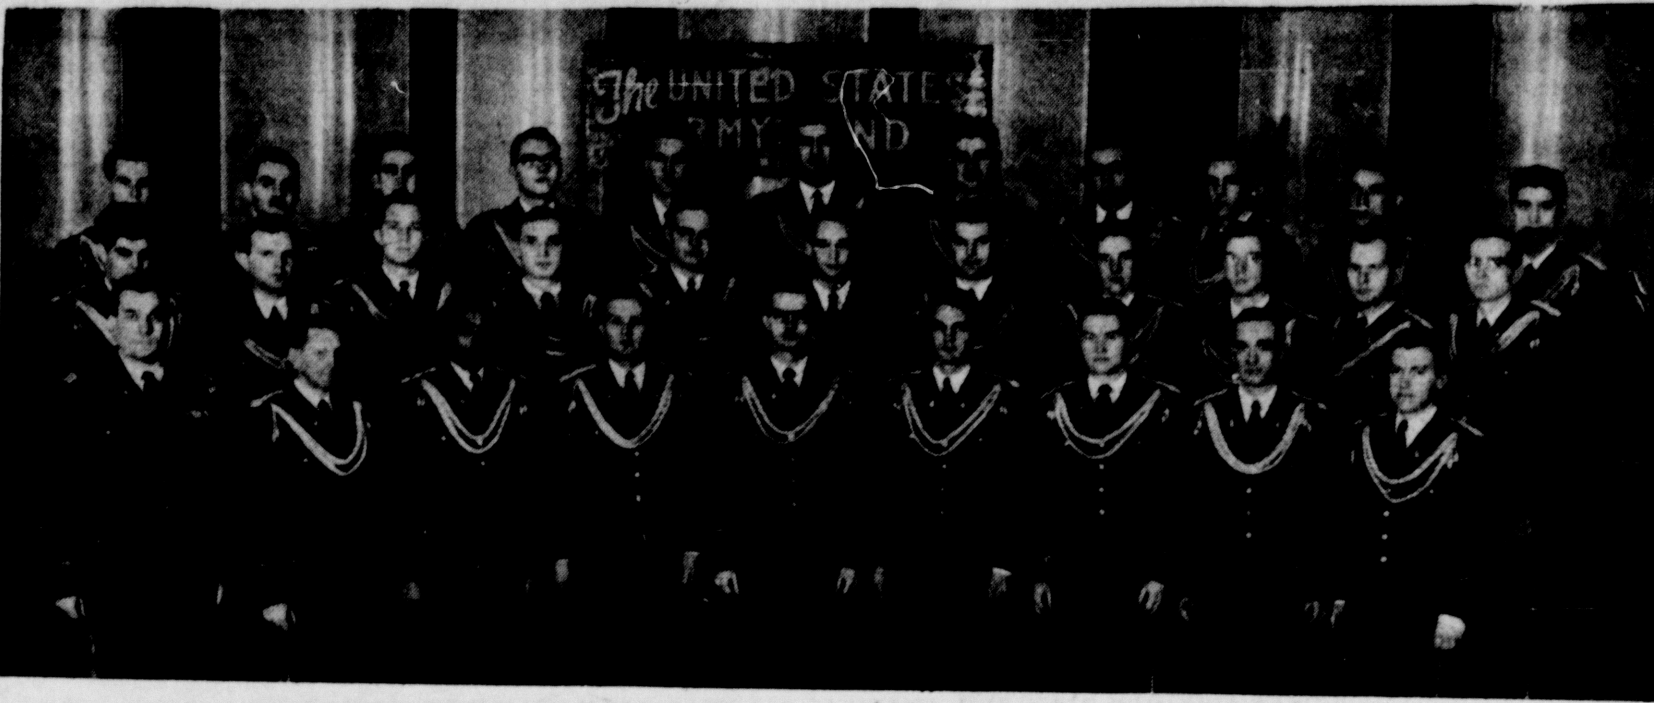

Cole said his reunion with his wife was the happiest moment of his life. He said he would remain here until the authorities, presumably meaning both American and Austrian, decide that his case is closed.

He is stationed in Munich. U.S. press attache M.D. Werner said at the outset of the news conference that Cole would answer questions only "within certain limitations." Werner said "I am afraid I can't answer that" when asked who imposed the limitations and why.

Army Chorus Of 40 Will Sing Here Sunday Night

The United States Army Band Chorus of 40 men (above) will present a concert Sunday evening in the Gettysburg High School auditorium as part of the Memorial Service opening the observance of the 95th Anniversary of the Battle of Gettysburg.

Li. Gen. Arthur Trudeau, the speaker, is head of the Army's Research and Development section, which has grown more important with the nation's entry into the rocket and ballistic missile age. The Army Band Chorus is a development of the last decade, growing out of a need shown for such a group connected with the U.S. Army Band, and was formed only two years ago as a separate unit of the band.

Major Hugh Curry, commanding officer of the band, said the chorus was "formed to supplement and extend the many activities of its parent organization, the famed United States Army Band. Its mission is much the same, to provide suitable music for military ceremonies and functions and to entertain military and civilian audiences."

Started As Small Chorus
"The need for such a group was noted a decade ago when a small chorus was formed of regular band instrumentalists who had choral experience. As public enthusiasm developed it became necessary to establish a full-fledged chorus. Each member of the 40-man group is a hand-picked professional. Members are usually graduates of a well-known university, conservatory or school of music who have a highly developed background of solo and ensemble appearances in the professional field. Specialists reinforce this outstanding group. The chorus has its own announcer, arrangers, electronic engineers, and stage manager."

Captain Samuel Loboda, assistant leader of the band, is director of the chorus. He is a nationally recognized composer and conductor of various instrumental and vocal groups.

Served Overseas
In 1941 he entered the infantry, became a platoon sergeant, and was awarded the Army Commendation Ribbon for his inventions and improvements on combat and intelligence equipment. In 1943 he graduated from the Army Music School at Washington and became executive officer of the school. Later wartime assignments took him to the Philippines and Japan. At the end of World War II Captain Loboda returned to the Army Band as its assistant leader. He formed a group of men as a chorus to appear with the band and occasionally perform as a separate ensemble. With the active personal encouragement of the chief of staff of the Army, General Maxwell D. Taylor, who spoke here last year, the band was formally organized in 1956 as a forty-member separate unit attached to the Army Band.

As a composer Captain Loboda has won honors as the writer of the theme "We're a Team" produced for the President and secretary of defense; "Retreat" based on the history of that traditional military ceremony; the music for the "Headquarters U.S.A." film; the "Kiwanis Anniversary March," the official march of that group; the "For God and Country," and the 101st Airborne Division's "Screaming Eagles" march written especially for that unit.

An electronics expert, he has also perfected a device for synchronizing and coordinating music to visual stories.

EXPECT NEW MINIMUM WAGE

HARRISBURG (AP)—A Labor and Industry Department official said Wednesday that a new minimum wage order is expected for women and minors employed in restaurants, hotels and motels.

Miss Elizabeth S. Johnson, director of the department's Bureau of Women and Children, said a new Restaurant, Hotel and Motel Wage Board is being organized and the board is expected to recommend the new wage order.

Miss Johnson spoke to delegates of the Interstate Conference of Labor Statistics. She told the group that employment in industries has continued to rise despite the current recession.

This indicates, she said, that industries such as retail stores, restaurants and hotels are essentially "depression proof."

A minimum wage order for restaurant, hotel and motel workers was proposed earlier but was set aside by the Dauphin County Court after an industry appeal.

Will Conserve Gamma Globulin

HARRISBURG (AP)—The State Health Department said Wednesday that future free distribution of gamma globulin will be limited to help preserve the state's dwindling supply.

Secretary Charles L. Wilbar said free distribution will be limited to indigent families in which a prospective mother is exposed to German measles.

Pregnant women receive gamma globulin shots when exposed to German measles, a disease that threatens unborn babies. The shots also are used to prevent infectious hepatitis. Wilbar said a high incidence of German measles reduced the supply.

Anchovies, added to potato salad, help to give it piquant flavor.

Dody Goodman To Play Harrisburg

Dody Goodman, of "Tonight" show fame, will play the title role in "Dulcy," a comedy hit. "Dulcy" will open at the Harrisburg Playhouse of Stars on Monday and will play through July 5.

Miss Goodman, who is known to millions as an outstanding comedian, is also a gifted dancer and has been seen in such Broadway musicals as "Miss Liberty," "Call Me Madam," "High Button Shoes," and "Wonderful Town." She has played on television with Martha Raye and Sid Caesar and has made many night club appearances. Following her fame on the "Tonight"

WOULD REMOVE JUDGES FROM PA. POLITICS

LEWISBURG, Pa. (AP) — The Pennsylvania Constitutional Study Conference was urged Wednesday to "get the appointment of judges out of politics."

Dr. A. Leo Levin, University of Pennsylvania Law School professor, said that Russia is the only other nation in the world where judges are elected.

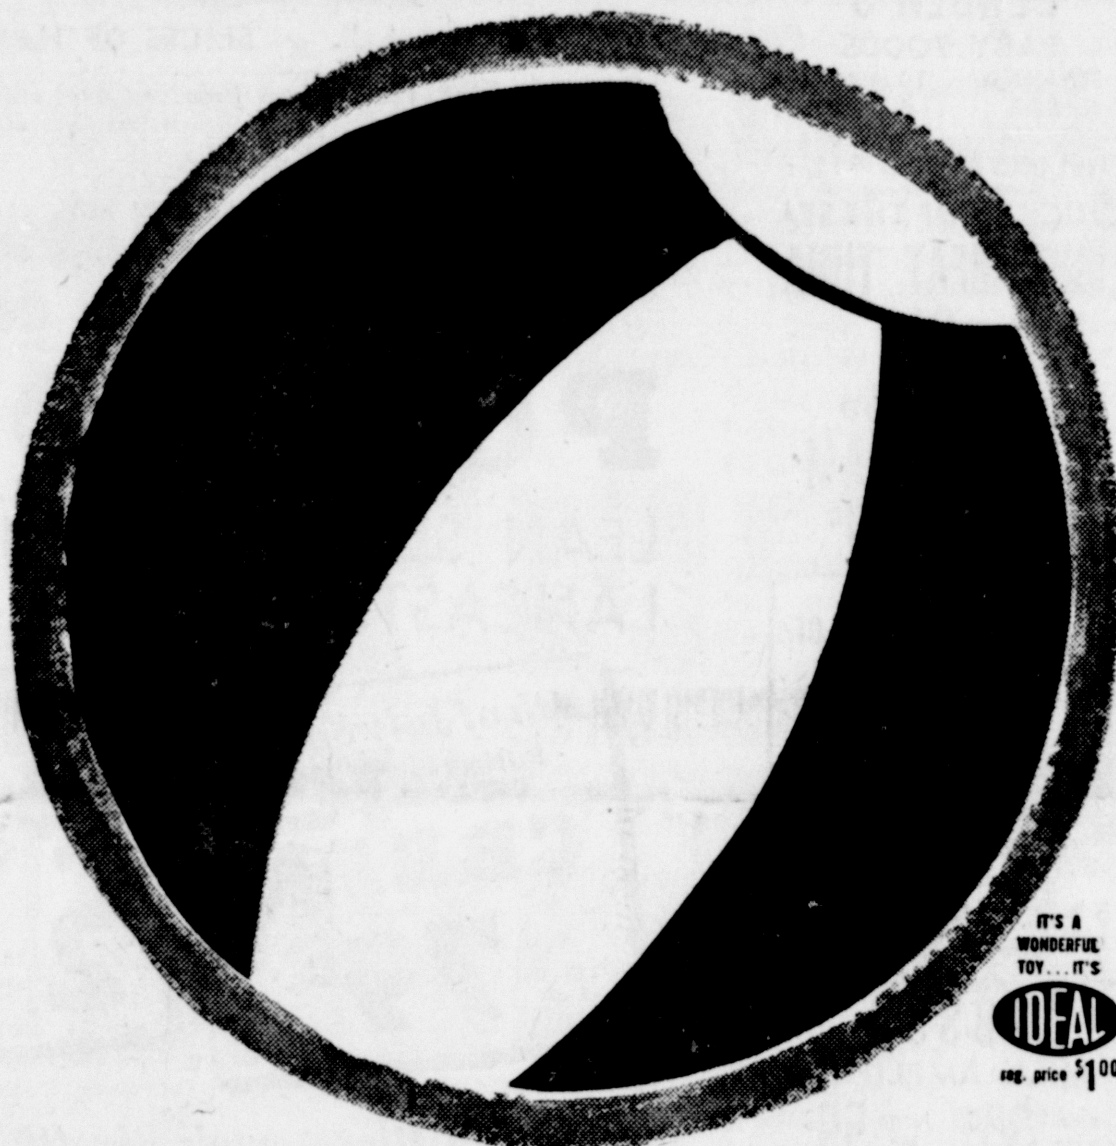

Levin made suggestions for changes in the state Constitution at the seminar sponsored by the Pennsylvania League of Women Voters. The conference will close today after an evaluation of accomplishments.

Other speakers suggested that the Constitution should give the Legislature more authority. They also suggested annual sessions of the Legislature and revisions in the salaries of and number of legislators.

show she appeared as a guest on television for "The Eddie Fisher Show" and "The Steve Allen Show." She has been heard twice weekly on radio's "Bandstand."

"Dulcy," the play in which Miss Goodman will star, is the story of America's original feather-brained, heart-of-gold sweetheart who sets out to manage her husband's career and nearly manages him out of it.

NEW APPLIANCES DESIGNED FOR EASY REPAIR

By VIVIAN BROWN
The Associated Press

Appliance repair men can come out of hiding, toss their crutches into the woodpile and throw away the horse liniment. They won't have to move a half-ton of washer and dryer to get at the nub of a thump-thump. The word from designer Carl Sundberg of Detroit, half of one of the nation's top design teams, is that new appliances will be designed for easy repair.

"Designers didn't realize how complex some appliances like washing machines were becoming. We just went along putting the mechanical parts in the same old inaccessible place, but now we realize that appliance servicing must be considered when designing new appliances."

This is good news for housewives who wait weeks for the appliance men to show up, and then pay in trying a 500-pound washing machine loose from a corner.

There will be other bugs ironed out by Sundberg who says his own kitchen is useful for the purpose, and his wife "like any other woman" is all too willing to complain about the cheap little plastic gizmos that find their way into expensive refrigerators, and the other booby traps that have soured the housewife on big appliances.

What Is Needed?
"Fabulous built-in kitchens that one sees in ads represent only about 5 or 10 per cent of the appliance business," Sundberg says. "Designers must be more practical. What is needed? What makes sense? What can the housewife afford? Those are the questions the designer must answer on the drawing board."

Women want that built-in look, but they know it is not practical, "so we design kitchens that look built in but are free standing and easy to change, one reason why the shape of appliances has taken on the architectural square look," he says.

Sundberg sees time-saving electronic cooking in the near future because it helps eliminate kitchen smells, and makes the kitchen less of a work shop, integrating it with the living area.

"The housewife," he says, "may take orders at the table after the family sits down for the meal, and cook it before the family's eyes in a matter of minutes. It'll be hot, too, when she serves it."

Some Dream Features
His kitchen of tomorrow now touring the country has some dream features like food warming compartments built into the dining table, electronic oven that cooks by microwaves, console control table that allows the housewife push-button control of various appliances, built-in vegetable peeler, slicer, dicer, remote control vacuum cleaner that may be sent sweeping around a room from that same control panel, adjustable ceiling lights that may be revolved to produce light in different color ranges to suit the mode, and color of the food.

"The recession has had one bright spot for the housewife," Sundberg says. "It has made manufacturers accelerate their programs to tickle the imaginations of the buying public, one reason why you'll get refrigerators and ranges in 1959 that were planned originally for 1965 delivery."

Steel Corp. To Push Expansion

NEW YORK (AP) — United States Steel Corp. is taking advantage of a slack production period to push a billion-dollar capital expansion program, biggest in company history.

Roger M. Blough, chairman, made the disclosure in reporting that directors have formally authorized a 300-million-dollar offering of sinking fund debentures. Proceeds will help finance the capital expenditures program, he said.

Blough said the decision to float the issue—one of the largest financing ventures ever attempted by an industrial firm—comes when Big Steel's continuous program of capital outlays is at a record high.

The expenditures still to be made at the beginning of 1958 on authorized projects, plus authorizations in the first half of this year, total more than one billion, Blough asserted.

"With these expenditures U.S. Steel is developing and bringing into production new sources of iron ore and other raw materials," he said.

MINISTERS FROM ABROAD
MADISON, N. J. (AP) — Ten native ministers from Southern Rhodesia, Malaya, India, Japan, Korea, Pakistan and the Philippines have been brought by the Methodist Church to Drew Theological Seminary here for a year's specialized training in church leadership and parish administration. It's reported to be one of the first programs of its kind.

Manager Pays For Free Lunch

PITTSBURGH (AP)—Read this tale of a lunch on the house.

Nicholas J. Nigro, ex-manager of a nearby hotel, came into U.S. District Court Tuesday to plead guilty to evading payment of $3,026 in cabaret taxes.

Nigro told Judge Joseph P. Willson he didn't understand the tax because of its complexity. And, said Nigro, two Internal Revenue agents came to his place and discussed his tax situation.

The agents, said Nigro, seemed very well pleased. So, Nigro said, he invited them to have lunch with him. As they lunched, Nigro said he explained his bookkeeping system. He did so much explaining, he declared, the agents had another look at his books — and then arrested him.

Judge Willson sentenced Nigro to six months in jail and fined him $5,000, stipulating that Nigro will be jailed another six months if he does not pay the fine.

"It was a very expensive lunch," said Judge Willson.

TV'S BUTTON PUSHERS MUST GO, HE ASSERTS

By WILLIAM GLOVER
NEW YORK (AP)—Television, says producer Paul Gregory, needs to get rid of its "hysterical button pushers."

They are major reasons why programming exhibits timidity and mediocrity, he feels.

A showman of relentless energy who operates in the three worlds of TV, theater and movies, Gregory is a provider of special projects under contract to the CBS network. His criticism is of other than network representatives.

Ready For Changes
"A major complaint I've got is the areas of approval given to some star and agency people, so that things keep fluctuating right up to show time and you never are able to get what you want into a mold that jells," he asserts.

"If TV is going to do big shows in the future, then they've bloody well got to keep such characters away from the programs."

Although he doesn't know how or why such interference developed, the dark-browed Gregory is ready to start making some changes of his own henceforth.

"For the first time I've read the small print in a contract," he says, "and on shows from now on I'm not going to bend."

He's Changeable Too
The creator during the past several years of such TV specials as "The Caine Mutiny Court Martial," "The Day Lincoln Was Shot," "Three for Tonight" and "Crescendo," Gregory is tentatively contemplating a spectacle for late fall about the greats of film-land.

The idea struck him when he became fascinated by the foot-prints which are embedded in the sidewalk of Grauman's Chinese Theater in Hollywood.

His plans however are subject to swift change—a Gregory tradition—for he is currently plunging into Broadway work after an interlude of moviemaking.

The screen production of "The Naked and the Dead," having been completed, he is bringing "Marriage - Go-Round" starring Charles Boyer and Claudette Colbert to Broadway this fall.

The department granted the first one Tuesday to Weldon Bruce Dayton, a physicist of Balboa Island, Calif.

The department also notified attorneys for artist Rockwell Kent and Dr. Walter Briebl, a Los Angeles psychiatrist, that they will be issued passports too.

All three men figured in the high court's passport ruling.

In the wake of the ruling, legislation was introduced in Congress to authorize the State Department to deny passports when issuance would not be in the best interests of the country.

RELIGIOUS ROUNDTABLE
WASHINGTON, D. C. (AP) — A Roman Catholic Priest, a Protestant minister, a Jewish Rabbi and representatives of Hinduism, Islam and Buddhism discussed their faiths at a brotherhood meeting sponsored here by the Kiwanis clubs of Georgetown and Washington.

FCC ORDERS CUT IN PHONE RATES

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Federal Communications Commission Wednesday ordered American Telephone & Telegraph Co. to cut its rates for private telephone line service by about 15 per cent. The order becomes effective in 60 days.

The commission announcement said that on the basis of AT&T's

1955 traffic volume—which was used in the FCC study—the ordered adjustment would reduce the company's revenues by $5.

700,000 a year. FCC said an analysis of AT&T's own figures showed it is earning "at least" 10.5 per cent on its investment in private lines.

The reduction is designed to bring the return rate down to 7.5 per cent.

Privately leased telephone circuits are widely used by government agencies, stockbrokers, banks, large industries, and others.

Wednesday's order does not affect the telephone service used by the general public, or telegraph service.

ices maintained by AT&T, or wire circuits supplied to TV and radio stations for program transmission.

KEEPING BUSY BEST WAY TO STAY YOUNG

By DOROTHY ROE
The Associated Press

The only way to stay young is to keep busy and interested in many things, the more the better, says Margaret Rudkin, one of the country's best-known and most successful women executives.

When her doctor recently ordered her to slow down, Mrs. Rudkin was appalled.

"How can I?" she demanded. "I'm not geared to slow motion. I can't just stop and be a vegetable. I've got to have something to do!"

Both her doctor and her husband were firm, however, so Mrs. Rudkin agreed to take more time away from the office and spend more time at her Pepperidge Farm home near Norwalk, Conn., where she baked the original loaf of bread which launched an international business.

Works At Home

Staying at home didn't mean doing nothing, however. The energetic Mrs. Rudkin at once plunged into a number of diverse enterprises, including the purchase and renovation of a 17th Century home in Ireland and the study and enlargement of her collection of rare old cookbooks.

"Nobody's going to retire me to a rocking chair and shawl," says she. "They'll have to tie me down first. That sort of thing may have been all right for Whistler's mother, but not for Maggie Rudkin."

The house in Ireland is a huge, eight-bedroom structure built in 1640 and situated in Bagenalstown, County Carlow, about 70 miles south of Dublin. Mrs. Rudkin has proceeded with a complete restoration job, including central heating, with the aid of a Dublin architect. This comes under the head of "relaxation."

So do her latest hobbies of color photography and trout fishing.

"We love our Irish home," says she. "It's true what the Irish say — the grass is greener there and the flowers are bigger. The pace of life is much slower, too, in Ireland — that's the only thing that bothers me — I have to keep busy."

HOUSEWORK FOR MRS. M. T. DANIEL TOUGH BUSINESS

By CYNTHIA LOWRY
NEW YORK (AP) — "Housework."

with a crust, cook it in a well-greased pan over a slow fire. When it has been removed from the fire, pour sugar and rose-water over it.

"When you read a recipe such as that," says Margaret Rudkin, "you must admit that there's a lot to be said for 'Honest Voluptuousness.'"

Well, is Mrs. Rudkin retiring? "Not on your life," she laughs. "I couldn't quit if I wanted to. And believe me, I don't want to."

said Margaret Truman Daniel. "It is very hard work — particularly if you are not used to it."

At least, added the daughter of the former President, she was not used to it when she and her husband, E. Clifton Daniel Jr., moved into their East Side duplex apartment more than a year ago.

"There seemed to be a million details to think about — from dusting to shopping — and they had to be fitted in the day," she said. "But you get through it, somehow and you learn."

Margaret had the housework situation pretty well in hand recently when she took over the housekeeper's job, with some help from a cleaning woman, for a short period.

Cooking Is Hardest

"The worst," she admitted, "was probably the cooking. I like to do the cooking some of the time — but it gets to be a hard job when you do it day in and day out."

The Daniels, since their marriage in 1956 and the birth of their son, Clifton Truman Daniel, last June, have slipped quietly into the world of the city's cliff dwellers. Daniel is a few minutes away from his newspaper office and his working day runs from about 10 to 7.

Margaret, while primarily occupied in bringing up her blue-eyed, brown-haired boy and making her husband comfortable, also has found time to pursue enjoyably her pre-marriage interests.

She still is under contract with the National Broadcasting Company. Last fall she put in a couple of weeks acting in television from Los Angeles. She's made some guest appearances on shows, and on the week of May 19 did the guest narration for an NBC daytime serial called Modern Romances.

In addition, she keeps up with her singing, works regularly with a coach and is making some records.

Stops Concert Tours

"But I don't do any more concert tours," she said. "That's over. I think it is a good idea to keep your voice in shape, but that is very different from tours, when you have to keep yourself steadily at concert pitch. Acting is much easier on you, physically."

Margaret has solved easily the familiar problem of the wife who works.

"Our home is the private part of our life," she explained. "After all, it is my husband's home, and there we do things the way he wants them done. Of course, I have some responsibilities in connection with my work — but that all happens outside our home and is arranged so that it doesn't interfere."

Their son is usually cared for by a nurse, except on her day off when Margaret takes over for the day. With other small children and their nurses, the youngster spends hours on nice days in the park nearby. This summer, the family has leased a house for two months in a suburb a 40-minute train ride from town, and Margaret is looking forward to the change.

"But," she added, "I don't want to move to the country for keeps. I came from the country to the big city, and here's where I like it best."

The Daniels take particular pains to preserve the privacy which is an important part of their lives. Usually, when Mr. and Mrs. Harry S. Truman visit their daughter and her family, they stay at a hotel near the apartment — mostly so that the reporters and photographers who cluster around the former President will not interfere with the normal course of the Daniels' life.

Margaret finds time to meet friends for an occasional luncheon and she and her husband lead an active social life which includes some theater-going. From time to time Margaret accompanies her husband on trips — "A lot of Republicans went on the wagon when they saw me turn up at the Republican convention in San Francisco; they didn't believe it."

Neither of the Daniels spends much time wondering whether or not their son will ever become President.

"Naturally," said Margaret, "he can be anything he wants to be. The chances that any American boy will grow up to be President are numerically very small."

UNION OFFICIAL CHARGED WITH ACID THROWING

READING, Pa. (AP) — Charges have been filed against a man identified as a union steelworkers official in connection with acid thrown at a car leaving the strike-bound Marco Industries plant.

William E. Norman was held in $2,000 bail Tuesday on charges of transporting corrosive material with intent to harm, disfigure, disable and do bodily harm.

The charges were filed in nearby Robeson by Warren I. Troutman, Wernersville R. D. 3; Louis Schers, Sinking Springs, and Oscar Carlson, Reading.

They said acid was thrown at Schera's car Monday from a passing auto as the three left the Marco Plant in nearby Womelsdorf.

Contract Expired

The plant, which employs 150 workers in manufacturing small electric motors, was struck April 15 when the firm's contract with the USW expired.

The Associated Press

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Soviet Communists, like the Devil, have been credited with diabolical cunning in planning every move. They look now like men who have been in a confused search for a foreign policy for five years.

Joseph Stalin was neither modern nor subtle. He could think only in terms of violence. This provided him with a simple philosophy at home and abroad. He used terror to keep the Soviet people and the satellites in line.

As for Communist expansion, he contempt proceedings against 14 women and two men accused by the company of illegal picketing. A preliminary injunction was issued June 13 restraining picketing.

Two photographers of the Lebanon Daily News said they were roughed up by pickets. Officials of the newspaper arranged a meeting with state police to discuss the incident.

thought in the crudest terms: push where you think you can get away with it. For instance, the war in Korea, the pressure on Iran, Turkey, Greece, and the Berlin blockade.

Created Western Alliance

But what he achieved was what he wanted least: a solid Western alliance against the Soviet Union and a view by neutrals that the Soviet Union was a symbol of the bogeyman. He had outlived his time.

He died in 1953 at the dawn of a new age: the atomic and hydrogen bombs and intercontinental missiles. His heirs had to accommodate themselves to both the new age and new tactics to offset the damage he had done.

To win over the neutrals, Nikita Khrushchev sought to give the appearance of a benevolent Soviet Union freed at last from the terror of purges and violent advances.

Exile Replaces Execution

As an example of the new day—with the exception of secret police chief Lavrenti Beria who was executed — Khrushchev's rivals, like Molotov and Malenkov, were simply purged from their jobs. Unshot, they were banished to the provinces.

And the Soviet Union began economic help to the backward countries. At the same time Khrushchev had to find a way to soften the West and split its alliances by giving the appearance of a new, peaceful, friendly Soviet Union.

Hence his denunciation in 1956 of Stalin as a murderer and his suggestion—undreamed of in Stalin's time and anathema then and now to old-line Stalinists—that there are different roads to socialism—meaning communism.

Aimed At Satellites

This was intended to woo back Yugoslavia, give the appearance of relaxation of Soviet control over the satellites, encourage Western nations to show less hostility to their own, native, home-grown Communist parties.

Meanwhile, Khrushchev in person bounced around Europe and Asia, talking good will. But all this, as it turned out, was not so much a well thought out policy as an experiment, and one which turned out ruinously.

The Poles and Hungarians, taking advantage of what they thought was relaxation, revolted. The latter had to be crushed by the Soviet army. Yugoslavia refused to be wooed back into the Soviet fold.

Policy Failed

In short, the policy failed and doubly so: the Western alliance did not disintegrate under Khrushchev's blandishments and unrest in the satellites continued, even though Khrushchev did make some progress with the neutrals.

Apparently the Soviet Communists became frightened by the Khrushchev experiment. The purge was restored with the execution of Hungarian Premier Imre Nagy and some of his lieutenants.

This wanton act of murder shocked the world, including the neutrals. No doubt it was intended as a warning to any would-be rebels in the satellites. In one foul execution, the Soviet communists undid much of their work since 1953.

GAS TAX REFUND FORMS MAILED

HARRISBURG (AP) — Some 40,000 applications for gasoline tax refunds to farmers went into the mail Wednesday under a new plan to make repayment as much as six months ahead of schedules of previous years.

It proved what only the absent-minded could have forgotten, that the Communists are political cannibals who will feed on themselves and all others who get in their way.

Khrushchev and his friends — who by their tactics have just about wrecked any chance of a summit meeting—appear at the moment to be in search of a new foreign policy.

W. Ken Duffy, secretary of the Board of Finance and Revenue, said Gov. Leader has approved the arrangement that envisions farmers receiving their checks as early as July instead of November and December.

"We have revised the system so that electronic equipment can be used to process the claims as soon as they are received," he told a newsman. "In other years, the applications weren't processed until all were in."

The deadline for filing is Sept. 30. It covers the 12-month period ending June 30.

Duffy estimated that up to 3½ million dollars would be refunded to farmers for gasoline used in farm machinery in the past year. Taxes paid on fuel used in non-licensed farm vehicles and licensed tractors are subject to refund at the full five cents a gallon.

BRANDED PULLETS

MOCKSVILLE, N. C. (AP) — Chicken raiser M. K. Allen, of near Mocksville, was bothered by thieves stealing so many of his pullets. So he borrowed an idea from the branding iron of cattle rustling days.

He bought a tattoo set and is now putting his brand in the web of the chickens' wing so he can identify stolen ones as his property.

SIGN OF RECESSION

PEORIA, Ill. (AP) — The local Illinois Employment Service office estimates that the total unemployment in Peoria and Tazewell County is 11,325.

A year ago March, jobless numbered 3,000.

An 8-ounce can, usually termed "buffet," holds 1 cup. A 15- to 17-ounce can, called No. 303, holds 2 cups.

78-Page Paper Decides Coffee Cools Faster If Cream's Delayed

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—What's the fastest way to cool your coffee, assuming you use milk or cream?

Do you put the cream in right away, or hold off a bit?

Is this academic? It was to start with. But not now.

At Cornell University, in New York State, two coffee-keen professors fell to arguing these points. Their talk was so intriguing that two seniors — Robert L. Seidel, Cresskill, N.J., and Darwin A. Novak, East St. Louis, Ill. — resolved to get at the scientific truth about it.

Wins First Prize
For their entire senior year, these two grappled with the poser. They came up with a 78-page paper, complete with formulae, graphs and a slew of higher mathematics.

A brief abstract of their findings tells you that coffee cools faster if the drinker waits a little while to pour in the milk or cream.

Today, the American Institute of Chemical Engineers, holding its golden jubilee convention here, gave the bulky paper first prize in its international competition for student papers.

Invite Criticism Of Inheritance Tax Law

HARRISBURG (AP)—The Joint State Government Commission has invited critical examination of proposed changes in the state inheritance and real estate tax.

Rep. Baker Royer (R-Lancaster), chairman, said the changes proposed by the commission were made in an attempt to clarify the law. He said changes were proposed only where experience had shown they were needed.

"While substantial work has gone into its preparation," Royer said, "the very nature of the act demands that it be critically examined by numerous groups having specialized knowledge of the subject."

The commission is the research arm of the General Assembly.

SAYS RULING ON STATE SPENDING REVOLUTIONARY

HARRISBURG (AP)—Rep. H. G. Andrews, House Democratic floor leader, said today an unprecedented ruling to divert other state funds to pay occupational disease benefits has created a no man's land on state spending.

He said the 1959 Legislature should look into the question of whether a governor can transfer funds from one program to another without prior legislative approval.

"It seems to me that the attorney general's new ruling is revolutionary and raises the issue of whether the General Assembly has any power over appropriations," he told The Associated Press.

Andrews referred to a ruling that allowed Gov. Leader to transfer $4 million dollars in other still-unidentified state funds to bolster the dwindling occupational disease fund.

Occupational disease payments to some 5,000 ex-coal miners or their widows would otherwise have been halted in August because a 1957 appropriation of 13 million dollars for the program is approaching exhaustion.

Coincidentally, Chairman Edward J. Kessler (R-Lancaster) of the Senate Finance Committee issued a statement describing the ruling as "government by edict which the Leader administration obviously favors so the governor may superimpose his decisions on the will of the Legislature."

No Quarrel With Program
Both Andrews and Kessler emphasized they had no quarrel with the occupational disease program in itself.

"The opinion of the attorney general has created a no man's land between the legislative department and the executive branch," Andrews said.

"It will be necessary to determine the responsibility and obligations of the two branches of government."

The Democratic leader said the opinion provides precedent for a governor to cut into the financing of one program to favor another. He said the courts may eventually have to decide whether he can do this.

Ask Decision On Burned State Car

HARRISBURG (AP)—The state attorney general was asked Wednesday to decide if Alfred T. Novello, deputy auditor general, should pay for a state-owned car. Novello reported earlier that a $2,500 state automobile was destroyed by fire while he was on a Memorial Day weekend trip to Conesville, N. Y.

Auditor Gen. Charles C. Smith said he authorized the trip. He told newsmen he planned a statement shortly on whether Novello should be assessed for the cost of the vehicle since the Commonwealth does not insure its automobiles against fire.

FIRST STEEL FIRM LISTS PRICE JUMP

CONSHOHOCKEN, Pa. (AP)—Alan Wood Steel Co. is the first in the nation to announce a price increase.

Harleston R. Wood, president of the specialty steel firm, said Wednesday past and upcoming increases in labor costs necessitate an increase of as much as $7 a ton July 7.

He hedged to this extent: Failure of large competitors to raise prices could make him change his mind.

United States Steel Corp., which traditionally sets the price pattern for the steel industry, said through a New York spokesman it is "studying the Alan Wood situation but we have no comment at this time."

A spokesman for Bethlehem Steel Corp., the nation's second largest steel producer, had this to say: "As stated recently, we are studying the many factors involved before we make any price determination."

Might Cut Back
Wood said:

"We realize that our company is too small to maintain a price level different from that of our large competitors. In the event the other steel producers do not change their prices by July 7 or in the event they increase them by amounts other than those we have announced, we will have no alternative other than to be competitive with their prices."

Steel plate and floor plate prices armed robbery (as of 10 years); Henry Johnson, second degree murder; and John Mitchell, burglary, larceny and receiving stolen goods, all of Philadelphia.

Pa. Guardsmen Being Inspected

INDIANTOWN GAP, Pa. (AP)—Lt. Gen. George W. Reed Jr., Second Army commander, will inspect National Guardsmen of Pennsylvania's 79th Infantry Division today.

Units of the division, in the first week of its two-week summer encampment here, will simulate combat conditions during the inspection tour.

The commanding general also is scheduled to attend a formal review of 2,000 artillery troops of the division. The review will honor Col. Harold R. Spaans, assistant division artillery commander, who will retire following the close of the encampment.

2-DAY FEUD IS SETTLED

WASHINGTON (AP)—Sen. Richard B. Russell (D-Ga.) said today he is satisfied with new assurances that top military officials may testify frankly before congressional committees.

Secretary of Defense McElroy apparently settled a two-day feud with a formal letter to Russell saying that "officials of the department, when testifying before Congress, should give their personal judgments and opinions asked for them."

"There should not, in my opinion, be any question of retaliation or penalty for such testimony."

With that assurance, Russell said he will ask Gen. Maxwell D. Taylor, Army chief of staff, and Gen. Randolph M. Pate, Marine Corps commandant, to testify sometime next week on a pending defense reorganization bill.

Russell, chairman of the Senate Armed Services Committee, had canceled their scheduled testimony earlier this week after McElroy told newsmen he was disappointed at testimony on the bill by Adm. Arleigh A. Burke, chief of naval operations.

JURY TO PROBE SETTLEMENT OF LABOR DISPUTE

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—A federal grand jury investigating reported shakedowns in the settlement of labor disputes, planned today to resume its inquiry here sometime next month.

U. S. Atty. Harold K. Wood said the panel's inquiry would continue into four labor disputes in which persons connected with racketeering reportedly went to management with proposals to arrange settlements for sums ranging from $2,000 to $50,000.

Two of three witnesses called by the jury Wednesday declined to answer most of its questions, a government spokesman said.

The spokesman said William (Willie) Weisberg and Samuel (Cappy) Hoffman invoked the Fifth Amendment throughout most of their brief appearances. Their counsel, Lester J. Schaffer, said, "It was their only recourse."

The third witness, Samuel (Shorty) Feldman, business agent for Teamsters Local 929, testified on most of the jury's questions, the spokesman said.

Feldman was accused last April in testimony before the Senate Labor Rackets Committee of offering to halt an organizing drive against the Horn & Hardart Baking Co. for $50,000. He invoked the Fifth Amendment before the committee.

Awards Contract For Mental Health Center

HARRISBURG (AP)—The General State Authority awarded one contract and received an additional bid Wednesday for work on the existing residence at the site of the New Haverford Mental Health Center in Delaware County.

The work is being done to convert the building into an outpatient clinic for use in advance of the construction of the new institution.

A contract for electrical construction was awarded to Reese Electric Inc., Upper Darby, on a bid of $3,713.

The unofficial low bid received for general construction was $12,795 submitted by Andrichyn and Schnabel, Lansdale.

The State Bureau of Employment Security said Wednesday the delay will be caused by the July 4 holiday. Officials said the bureau has remained open during all other holidays this year to process the claims but will close for the Independence Day holiday.

A Common Denominator: Crisis No Stranger to French Governments

FRENCH GOVERNMENTS SINCE THE FIRST REPUBLIC

By CHARLES STAFFORD
The Associated Press

The French have a saying: "The more things change, the more they remain the same." Black headlines on stories unfolding the succession of crises in France and Algeria sometimes give the impression France is undergoing unprecedented strain, charting new courses in dissension and impotency.

But the proverb holds true. In the light of history, the present French troubles — cataclysmic as they seem — are merely modernized reruns of the long succession of crises which jam the pages of French history. It is difficult to find anything completely new in those of June 1958.

Consider the Committee of Public Safety which ruled Algeria in recent weeks. A Committee of Public Safety ruled all France during the post-revolution days of the First Republic.

De Gaulle's Recall
Consider the recall from retirement of Gen. Charles de Gaulle. When the Second Republic was shaken to its shallow roots by a workers' rebellion in June, 1948, the government cast about for a man with a colorful reputation who could hold the masses in check.

Consider the special powers granted de Gaulle to govern by decree. In 1934, with the Third Republic buffeted by a tidal wave of public indignation over corruption in high places, former President Gaston Doumergue was named premier and given power to secure economies by decree.

The more things change, the more they remain the same. The first Republic was proclaimed Sept. 21, 1792, a little more than three years after the French Revolution began. It was woefully short of democratic processes.

Violence Includes Guillotining
Extreme revolutionaries got control and a Committee of Public Safety, headed finally by Robespierre, became the chief agency of government. Their violent excesses, including the guillotining of hundreds — among them Louis XVI and Marie Antoinette — came to be known as the Reign of Terror.

Robespierre fell, a new constitution was written with the executive power vested in five directors, and a young general kept it in power. With his military victories came visions of an empire and the young general, Napoleon, turned on the republic.

On Nov. 9, 1799, the First Republic slipped to oblivion. Five years later, Napoleon was proclaimed emperor.

After Waterloo in 1815, France was not yet willing to try another democracy. Instead, Louis XVIII returned to power and ruled until 1825. Social unrest boiled over in another revolution, Louis fled, and the Second Republic was proclaimed.

Its life was short. When some of the privileges granted the workers were taken away, they rebelled. The four-leader who could hold the people, Louis Napoleon was chosen. On Dec. 2, 1851, he dissolved the assembly and set up a dictatorship.

Has Some Vitality
Louis Napoleon's miserable failure in the Franco-Prussian War led to the proclamation of the Third Republic on Sept. 4, 1870, with the Germans marching on Paris. This one had some vitality.

It also had its full share of crises. One government followed another. From 1905 to 1912, trouble had its seat in Morocco where German interference led to strained relations settled finally by World War I.

The Third Republic survived the first world war, but not the second. After Hitler's armies overran France, the conquered French assembly dissolved the Third Republic on July 12, 1940.

De Gaulle led a French National Committee in exile during the remainder of the war. When the Allies invaded the French coast on June 6, 1944, this committee was proclaimed the provisional government of France.

When it was recognized by the Allies in November 1944, the Fourth Republic was born. Although its democratic organization has been suspended, it's still breathing.

MORMON EXPANSION

HAMILTON, New Zealand (AP) — A gleaming new Mormon temple, built atop a hill at nearby Tuhikarama, and a 40-building college erected by the church in the same area were dedicated April 20. The $8-million-dollar Mormon project, providing the church's first temple south of the equator, was built entirely by donated labor.

NATIONALISM AN OBSTACLE

NEW HAVEN, Conn. (AP) — The nationalism sweeping Asia has taken on a "religious coloring" which insists that native faiths be revived and kept, says Bishop Rajah B. Manikam, of the Evangelical Lutheran Church of South India. He said this new "religious nationalism" poses a tremendous obstacle to Christianity.

STRONG THIEVES

JOHNSON CITY, Tenn. (AP) — Police had one clue to the burglars who broke into O. G. Kelly Co. here — they had muscles. The loot consisted of 7½ tons of lead, in 100-pound bars.

Young Moderns

BY VIVIAN BROWN

A fashion that's been going strong for 100 years in Hawaii is going to the wardrobes of today's teen-agers. It's the muumuu, a comfortable loosely built gown, free of zippers, buttons and snaps. Just pull it over your head and swimsuit, wear it lounging around the house, wear it at your next record party.

For summer you'll be right in style if you make your muumuu of some of the delightful floral prints in sun-kissed or rose arbor hues. Make it of any lightweight fabric, suitable to the conditions in which it will live. Make it of silk for summer evening parties, giving the chemise a run for its success. Make it of cotton for the beach or lounging.

Easy Sewing Project
How to make it? It's the one easy sewing project you could embark on, say the sewing center strategists. Use a commercial pattern, if you like. Or, if you are an old hand with the needle, try your hand at it without a pattern.

Start by measuring from shoulder to bottom of hem, adding eight inches for a double hem. Multiply this measurement by three (one length for the front of the garment and two lengths for the back.) Add ½ yard for sleeves. One-half yard of contrasting fabric will be needed for yoke and cuffs.

Tall girls might like the classic puff sleeve, with an elastic strip inside the cuff-top to permit sleeve to be worn three-quarters or above elbow length, admitting a maximum of air circulation. Short girls may prefer to omit the sleeve entirely.

Seams Are Tapered

Cut down the center of the front fabric length on the straight of the goods. Front side seams are tapered outward from armhole to hem. The two lengths for the back are likewise tapered. The major segments of the muumuu body resemble four pie-shaped pieces, with an off-size bite taken out at the yoke line, and with one edge of each on the straight of the material.

The gathering of the body of the muumuu at the yoke line is easily done by setting the sewing machine for a long stitch which is easily gathered up. Arrange front fullness to fall freely over bust. Back gathers are distributed across center back.

Let Imagination Run

Let your imagination run riot if you like when it comes to decorative stitches on the yoke. Try a bold domino pattern or satin stitch a graceful vine and leaves. Cut a fabric motif and applique to the yoke. If you do the decorative stitching at the yoke, line your muumuu yoke with peltion. It's an easy project whether you are neophyte with pattern or girl wonder at the machine. And don't be surprised if your friends greet you with "Aloha," in recognition of your real Hawaiian look.

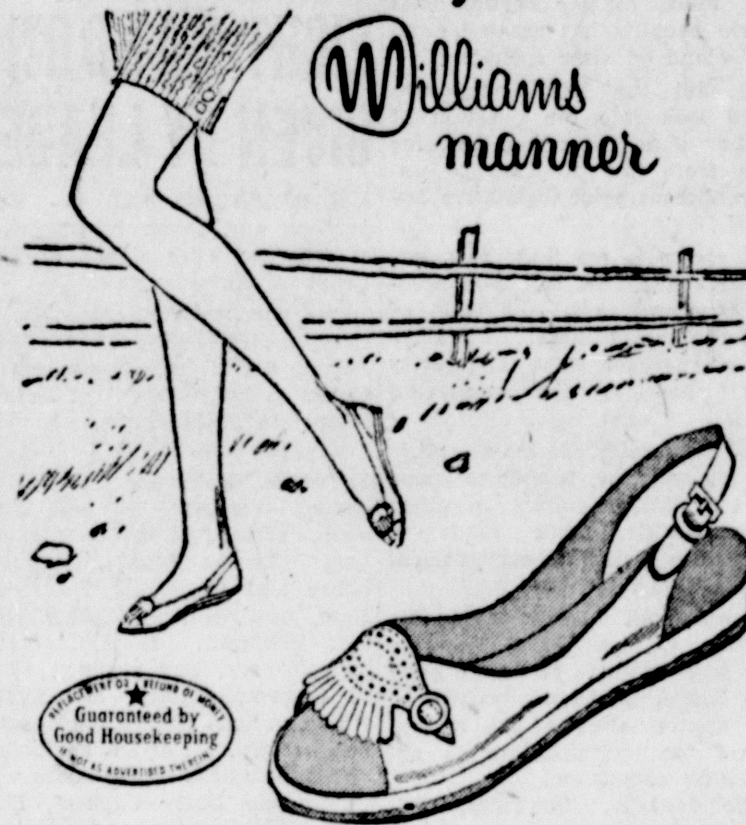

Chicken that is to be broiled takes to basting with melted butter, lemon juice, dried crushed savory and freshly-ground pepper.

POOR MORPHEUS

Insomnia sufferers of old ate raw white onions to woo the arms of Morpheus. Pity the poor husband or wife! Today we have more reliable methods of inducing sleep . . . sleeping pills and the tranquilizers for example. But, these medications are prescription items and should be taken only upon the advice of your physician. Check the obvious reasons for sleeplessness first—it may be caused by a lumpy mattress. Then, if the condition continues, see your doctor. If he recommends medication, we'll be glad to fill his prescription.

Three Children Die When Oil Heater Explodes In Home

BRADFORD, Pa. (AP)—An oil heater, being lighted on a cool evening, exploded in a mass of flames Tuesday night, snuffing out the lives of three children.

Allen Bromley, 11; his brother Wayne, 6, and their aunt, Christine Touro, 3, were trapped in the flaming home of Mr. and Mrs. Ward A. Bromley in nearby Bradford Twp.

The Bromleys had carried out their other two children—Carol, 3, and Gary 1½—but were prevented by intense heat from returning for the victims.

Coroner Robert W. Iyer of McKean County said the oil heater apparently exploded as Bromley prepared to light it before leaving for his job at a Bradford auto service garage.

Neighbors said they heard a blast and saw flames quickly mushroom through the one-story frame house. The house was leveled despite the efforts of four companies.

Carol and Gary were not harmed and were taken in by relatives. Mrs. Bromley, in deep shock, was put under sedatives by a physician at the home of neighbors. Bromley was reported in not serious condition at Bradford Hospital with burns, cuts and shock.

Christine, a sister of Mrs. Bromley, was the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Touro of Salamanca, N. Y., who were away on a trip.

HARRISBURG (AP)—George I. Bloom, Republican state chairman, has described as untrue and deceitful a Democratic charge that Republicans build prisons and call them state mental hospitals.

He said the statement he attributed to Joseph M. Barr, Democratic state chairman, was in keeping with Barr's "usual disregard for fact when seeking to hide the Democrats' grievous errors in judgment."

Leather Co. Owner Shot Accidentally

TROY, Pa. (AP)—Martin L. Poeltl, 48-year-old owner of the Penn-Leather Co. here, killed himself accidentally with a shotgun while hunting woodchucks in a field near his farm home Tuesday.

Bradford County Coroner Gerald Vickery ruled the death accidental. He said that Poeltl apparently started to put his gun down after climbing up a steep hill when it discharged, striking him in the head.

His widow and a daughter survive.

HOLLINGS IS S. C. GOVERNOR

COLUMBIA, S. C. (AP)—Ernest F. Hollings, a handsome Charleston lawyer and tireless campaigner, was named South Carolina's next governor Tuesday by a thumping 45,000-vote margin over Donald S. Russell.

At 36, he will be the state's youngest governor in modern times.

Hollings, named one of the 10 Outstanding Young Men of the Year in 1955 by the U. S. Junior Chamber of Commerce, won the Democratic primary nomination in a runoff election against Russell, 52-year-old former president of the University of South Carolina.

With nearly all precincts unofficially tabulated, Hollings had 190,163 votes to 145,263 for Russell. The party designation in this traditionally Democratic state is tantamount to election. Republi-

WOLFSON DENIES STOCK CHARGES FILED BY SEC

NEW YORK (AP)—Financier Louis E. Wolfson denies any wrongdoing in connection with stock of the American Motors Corp.

Wolfson, defendant in a civil court action brought here by the Securities and Exchange Commission, said in a statement from his Jacksonville, Fla., office: "Any charge or accusation of manipulation or fraud by reason of anything I have done is ridiculous and will be proved to be unjustified in due course."

Wolfson said he has not owned any American Motors stock for several weeks.

Restrained By SEC
He was temporarily restrained Tuesday from further dealings in American Motors Corp. common stock. The SEC said the company was not involved in the case against Wolfson.

Acting on a complaint by the SEC, Federal Judge Frederick VanPelt Bryan issued an order temporarily restraining the financier from further alleged violations of provisions of the Securities and Exchange Act of 1934.

Wolfson, 45, started with a Jacksonville, Fla., junkyard. His persons have not filed a slate for the November general election.

Find Few Hoppers In Colorado Fields

DENVER (AP)—A federal farm official says he spent two days looking for grasshoppers in eastern Colorado and couldn't find very many.

"My opinion is that this thing (infestation) has been greatly magnified," said Leavitt Booth, state director of the Farmers Home Administration. "I found no hoppers to any great extent in the fields."

The state continued with plans to spray crop and range lands under an emergency 1½-million-dollar fund voted last week by the Legislature.

sonal fortune now is estimated at close to 100 million dollars. Until recently he was said to be the largest stockholder in American Motors.

The SEC said Wolfson or his agents caused statements to be published which depressed the price of American Motors common stock.

In its complaint to the court the SEC said Wolfson indicated in various statements last winter and this spring that he was maintaining his interest in American Motors when actually he was unloading his entire holding of the company's stock.

CITES THREAT OF DEER TO TREES

The need to control the size of Pennsylvania's huge deer herd was sharply pointed up at a recent deer management seminar at Penn State University, according to a spokesman for the state's wood dependent industries.

George F. Patterson, Wellsboro, chairman of the Pennsylvania Forest Industries Committee, said seminar speakers emphasized that the damage to forest lands by deer overbrowsing is a threat to future existence of lumber and pulp industries in the state.

Among the seminar speakers, Dr. W. C. Bramble, acting director of the Penn State School of Forestry, said deer overbrowsing of forest lands is resulting in "a lost generation of trees." Because of deer eating tender young seedlings, the trees that should be starting now are not coming in. "We may wake up some day and find it is too late," he warned.

Tree Planting Industry
Dr. Bramble said studies carried out by the School of Forestry showed that where deer were in heavy concentration "it was practically impossible to practice good forestry and to reproduce present forest stands after cutting desirable timber species."

The same studies also showed that heavy deer populations make tree planting "hazardous," the forestry educator said. In many states, he added, deer have destroyed entire plantings and made "Christmas tree growing impractical."

Another speaker, Prof. Ward M. Sharp of the School of Agriculture, discussed the impact of deer on a variety of forest plants. The native wild grape plant, he said, could be eliminated if heavy deer browsing continues. Sassafras, greenbrier and blueberry bushes are all subject to heavy deer damage, he said.

CHARLOTTE, N.C. (AP)—Mrs. George G. Scott, mother of film star Randolph Scott, died Tuesday after an illness of five days. She was born in Luray, Va.

SAN JOSE, Calif. (AP)—Alexander Malcolm (Sandy) Smith, 99, famed Alaskan prospector and explorer, died Tuesday. Smith, who had appeared in a dozen movies, was second in command of the Sir Hubert Wilkins North Pole expedition in 1926.

In a snowstorm which swept Northwestern Ontario, Canada, recently, an American plane was damaged when it was forced down and hit a highway sign. It was towed to a nearby service station, repaired, then took off again from the highway.

Senate Explores Garment Dealings

SCRANTON, Pa. (AP)—The senate rackets committee is investigating possible links between alleged corruption in the Scranton area garment industry and the "gangland convention" at Apalachin, N. Y., last November.

Committee investigator Paul E. Kamerick came here Tuesday from Wilkes-Barre for interviews with two garment manufacturers, John St. George, head of Michele Frocks, and William Failla, owner of Scranton Frocks Inc.

He said his assignment covers investigating all phases of labor and management dealings in the garment field. The probe, he added, may have some bearing on the committee's plans to hold hearings on the Apalachin meeting.

LONDON (AP)—Princess Grace of Monaco is being urged to return to the movies in the role of a nun.

French producer Jules Borkon told the London Daily Herald that his religious adviser, Father Bruckberger, had flown from Chicago to Monaco to try to persuade the former Grace Kelly.

"I chose the princess," Borkon said, "because she has said she would return to the screen one day on condition the role differed from any she had played previously."

SEEK TO UPSET RACIAL ORDER

ST. LOUIS (AP)—The U. S. Court of Appeals here has received a motion to stay a District Court order delaying racial integration of Central High School at Little Rock, Ark., for 2½ years.

The motion arrived by mail and was accompanied by a notice of appeal from the ruling by U. S. Dist. Judge Harry J. Lemley at Little Rock.

If Judge Lemley's order is affirmed, Negro children who attended Central this past school year won't be back next fall.

Attorneys for the National Assn. for the Advancement of Colored People are fighting the judge's order. They claim that just because the city is "psychologically unready" for racial integration there is no basis for noncompliance with the "constitutional law of the United States."

Robert Tucker, clerk of the appellate court here, said he would send the motion for a stay to Chief Judge Archibald K. Gardner at his Huron, S. D., home.

The court is in recess for the summer. It is scheduled to reconvene the second week in September.

Recipe for Chick-N-Que Sauce:

1/2 cup Mazola corn oil 3 tablespoons sugar
1/2 cup lemon juice or cider 1 1/2 teaspoons Tabasco sauce vinegar 2 to 3 broiler-fryer chickens, split lengthwise, quartered, or breast and leg parts
1/2 cup water
1 1/2 tablespoons salt

To Prepare Sauce: Measure Mazola Oil, lemon juice or vinegar, water, salt, sugar and Tabasco into saucepan. Heat to boiling. Keep hot for basting chicken. Mix thoroughly before each basting. If you prefer a highly seasoned sauce increase Tabasco and add mustard and Worcestershire sauce.

To Barbecue Chicken: If using halves or quarters, hook wing tip behind shoulder joint onto back. Brush with the barbecue sauce. Place on grate set 12 inches or more from heat—skin side away from heat. Cook slowly until tender, turning frequently and basting each time. Allow 1 to 1 1/2 hours total cooking time. Drumstick should twist easily out of thigh joint. If parts are used, thickest pieces should be fork-tender. Just before serving brush chicken with any left-over sauce or use for dunking.

Littlestown OFFICERS FOR WOMAN'S CLUB ARE INSTALLED

Officers of the Woman's Community Club of Littlestown and vicinity, elected at the May meeting, were installed at the June meeting held Wednesday evening at the home of the outgoing president, Mrs. Luther W. Ritter, Glenwyn Drive.

Mrs. Atlee F. Rebert, a past president of the club, and currently vice president of the Adams County Federation of Women's Clubs, installed the officers as follows: President, Mrs. Robert J. Eckenrode; first vice president, Mrs. Robert H. Miller; second vice president, Mrs. Edward H. Leister; recording secretary, Mrs. Chester S. Byers; assistant recording secretary, Mrs. Paul E. Altoff; corresponding secretary, Mrs. Robert J. Stonesifer; and treasurer, Mrs. Sterling J. Wisotzkey.

Mrs. Luther W. Ritter, outgoing president, conducted the business prior to installation, and reports were heard from Mrs. Carroll E. Arter, secretary; Mrs. Robert H. Miller, treasurer; Mrs. Edward T. Richardson, cheer committee chairman, and Miss Malva Dutters, civic service committee chairman. The latter announced that all those members of the club who will participate in the annual bus trip will leave at 5 o'clock tonight from the town square. They will have dinner at Caledonia Manor and will go to the Totem Pole Playhouse to see "Sailor's Delight."

Report On Convention

Mrs. Eckenrode and Mrs. Ritter, who were two of more than 1,500 delegates attending the annual convention of the Pennsylvania Federation of Women's Clubs held recently in Harrisburg, gave brief reports of the proceedings. Mrs. Cloy I. Crouse also attended the convention with them.

Mrs. Kenneth Benner was accepted as a new member and was introduced. Mrs. Sterling J. Wisotzkey and Mrs. Robert J. Stonesifer were appointed as an auditing committee.

Mrs. Ritter presented a resume of the year's activities, noting that the club's pledge of $120 to the Annie M. Warner Hospital Building Fund, was paid this year as a result of the annual Fashion Show. She also thanked the club members for their cooperation before turning the gavel over to the new president, who also spoke briefly.

Retired Workers Get More Pension

WASHINGTON (AP) — Some 232,000 retired federal workers will start getting bigger pension checks in September.

President Eisenhower Wednesday signed a bill providing pension increases of about 10 per cent for persons who started drawing their benefits before Oct. 1, 1956. The bill sets a top limit of $504 a year on individual boosts.

The bigger pensions become effective Aug. 1. The Civil Service Commission said the increases will be reflected in checks due in September.

Also benefiting from the bill are about 12,000 widows who were ruled ineligible under previous law.

Employees who retired after Oct. 1, 1956, draw their benefits under a different and more liberal pension schedule. They are not affected by the new law.

FOREIGN AID IS CAUGHT IN FUSS

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Eisenhower's $3,675,400,000 foreign aid program was caught today in a jurisdictional wrangle over the use of U. S.-owned foreign currencies.

The big bill, over which all differences were thought to have been settled last week when Senate and House conferees agreed on a compromise bill, is back in the laps of the conferees again.

They met for three hours Wednesday and decided to meet again today in a further effort to get together.

They locked horns over House objection to a Senate provision approving the use of some foreign currencies for scientific and health projects overseas in cooperation with other nations.

The provision, originally agreed to by the House conferees, ran into House objections that it amounted to an appropriation in an authorization bill. House rules call for separate legislation for each.

Supreme Court Gets Pinball Case

PITTSBURGH (AP)—State Superior Court has been asked to set aside a Fayette County Court ruling that multiple-coin pinball machines are gambling devices and subject to seizure. No date has been set for oral arguments. In an appeal filed Wednesday, Atty. Louis Glasco argued: "Whether or not any particular machine is a gambling device per se is purely a matter for the legislature to determine. We feel that this decision is nothing but judicial legislation."

Glasco said pinball machines are games of skill and amusement.

The Fayette County Court opinion was handed down last week. The case stemmed from a raid on several Fayette County business establishments in which 41 pinball machines were confiscated.

Pa. Eastern Star Officers Selected

PITTSBURGH (AP)—Clara M. Fluke of Roaring Spring Wednesday was elected worthy grand matron of the Grand Chapter of Pennsylvania Order of the Eastern Star. She succeeds Mrs. Helen C. Watson of Indiana.

Delegates to the annual meeting in Pittsburgh also chose Altoona for the 1959 convention. Other new officers include: Hilda Seitzinger, Hazelton, Associate grand conductress.

New Board members include: Helen M. Farrell, Picture Rock; Benjamin H. Ulrich, Lock Haven; and Florence Bowyer, Wilkes-Barre; Felicitas Home board; Eloise Conn, Uniontown, Western Home board.

ESTRANGED WIFE KILLS HUSBAND

NORRISTOWN, Pa. (AP)—Anthony Prestia, 43, was shot to death today as he walked toward the front door of his home for a visit with his estranged wife.

His wife of more than 20 years, Veronica, 42, told Bridgeport Patrolman Joseph Colliouri, a friend of the family: "Joe, I shot him."

She was booked on a charge of murder and taken to the district attorney's office for questioning. Colliouri went to the Prestia home in nearby Bridgeport after receiving a call at headquarters from Mrs. Prestia.

He found her on the parlor floor sobbing. A daughter, Pauline, 19, was comforting her. She had another daughter, 15, and two married sons.

Prestia's body was outside. A single rifle shot had gone through the screen door and struck him in the head.

Mrs. Prestia would give police no details. Colliouri said the couple had been separated several weeks and Prestia, a brakeman, had been living with relatives.

He apparently came to the house, Colliouri said, to discuss a reconciliation and was shot with one of his hunting rifles.

Such collections not only turn up cultural treasures, he said, but also foster more cultural activity and awareness of local culture.
